

Contents                      Sorby Record No.48                      2012

The Eastern Moors – A Summary of Vascular Plant Species John and Valerie Middleton	2
Some prey items from Hobby, Falco subbuteo, pellets Alan S Lazenby and John Lintin Smith	28
Hobby Devouring Emperor Moths Derek Whiteley	30
Water Bent (Polypogon viridis) new to Sheffield and South Yorkshire Oli Pescott and Ambroise Baker	31
Ecological Thoughts Generated by an English Elm Stand at Maltby Richard Gulliver	34
Three interesting alien plants found in Whirlow Brook Park Ambroise Baker	38
“Sheffield’s Weather” – The Unwritten Chapter – Climate Projections for Sheffield Adrian Middleton	39
Annual Weather Summary for 2012 from Weston Park Weather Station Alistair McLean	52
John Brown Remembered Celia Jackson	54

Sorby Record is copyright © Sorby Natural History Society. Papers and information may be freely quoted or used on condition that the author and the source Sorby Record, Sheffield are acknowledged. We are unable to provide offprints but authors may make multiple copies of their own papers for educational purposes.

Above: Round-leaved Sundew on the Eastern Moors by John Middleton

Front cover: Bogbean on the Eastern Moors by John Middleton