

Value for Birds of the Green Corridors associated with Rivers Don and Rother and their Tributaries in the Sheffield Area	Harold Smith	2
An Introduction to Plant Galls in the Sorby Area	Tom Higginbottom	22
Doris Parkin 1909-2008 : A Life Fulfilled	Edited by Derek Whiteley	28
Decline of the Harvest Mouse at Pebley Reservoir	Derek Whiteley	38
Limb Valley Botanical Survey 2009-2010	John & Valerie Middleton	41
Bryophytes on Colliery Waste	Harry Lake and Joan Egan	50
Observations on Agden Moor Pipelines	Alan Miller	58
Fungus Recorder's Report for 2010	Steve Clements	61
Lichen Recorder's Report 2010 and an Update To The Checklist of Derbyshire Lichens	Steve Price	64
Sorby Natural History Society 2010		72

Above: Rhytidiadelphus triquetrus, a moss recorded on colliery waste.
Photo by Rita Holmes

Sorby Record is copyright © Sorby Natural History Society. Papers and information may be freely quoted or used on condition that the author and the source Sorby Record, Sheffield are acknowledged. We are unable to provide offprints but authors may make multiple copies of their own papers for educational purposes.

Front cover: Dog Stinkhorn, Mutinus caninus, Damflask Reservoir. Photo by Roger Butterfield